PLAN YOUR HOLIDAY RIDE AND "ARRIVE ALIVE"

Prosecutor Kolkovich and Sheriff Fatheree Urge Drivers to Travel Responsibly

AKRON, OH – Summit County Prosecutor Elliot Kolkovich and Summit County Sheriff Kandy Fatheree are once again partnering this Thanksgiving to help keep roads safe by offering Summit County residents accessible, safe, and affordable rides through the "Arrive Alive" program. The anti-drunk driving initiative provides free or discounted ride-share options throughout Summit County during the Thanksgiving holiday, encouraging residents to celebrate responsibly and avoid impaired driving.

"Thanksgiving is a time to be grateful for our families and to be together," said Prosecutor Kolkovich. "Arrive Alive is designed to keep Summit County residents safe after good times lead to a beverage or two. I'm thankful that the Sheriff and I can continue to offer this program so we can keep impaired drivers off the road this week."

"I hope you enjoy the food, the friends and family, and the football this Thanksgiving, but if you drink and drive, you won't enjoy your encounter with my deputies who will be out in full force this holiday weekend along with other area law enforcement. If you're having a few drinks a need a ride home, please make use of the Arrive Alive program," said Sheriff Fatheree.

This Thanksgiving, any Summit County residents who choose to celebrate with a drink can use an "Arrive Alive" Lyft code to get a free or discounted ride home (up to $20 in value). There are only 600 one-time-use codes available, and they will only be valid during the dates and times specified below.

Since its launch during the July 4th holiday weekend in 2018, the Arrive Alive program has helped 8,417 residents get home safely. The initiative is offered throughout the year during major holidays, including St. Patrick's Day, July 4th, Christmas, and New Year's Eve.
