Cleveland Man Found Guilty In Green Man's Death

AKRON, Ohio (Tuesday, August 01, 2017) – Summit County Prosecutor Sherri Bevan Walsh announced today that a Summit County jury found Trent Turner, 28, of Ansel Road in Cleveland, guilty in the 2015 shooting death of 27-year-old Corey Seibel.

Jurors found Turner guilty of the following charges:

- One Count of Murder with a Gun Specification – a special felony
- Three Counts of Aggravated Robbery with Gun Specifications – felonies of the 1st degree
- Two Counts of Aggravated Burglary with Gun Specifications – felonies of the 1st degree
- Two Counts of Felonious Assault with Gun Specifications – felonies of 2nd degree
- One Count of Grand Theft with a Gun Specification – a felony of the 3rd degree
- One Count of Trespass in a habitation with a Gun Specification – a felony of the 4th degree
- One Count of Having a Weapon Under Disability – a felony of the 3rd degree
- One Count of Carrying a Concealed Weapon – a felony of the 4th degree

In November of 2015, Turner was with two other people when all three went to Seibel's apartment in Green to rob him. During the robbery, Turner shot Seibel several times. Two of Seibel's friends were in the apartment at the time. Turner's co-defendants, Spencer Sims and Ty'Shawn Henderson, both pled guilty and were each sentenced to 14 years in prison.

Summit County Common Pleas Court Judge Amy Corrigan-Jones is scheduled to sentence Turner on Tuesday August 8, 2017 at 9:30am.
