Akron Man Found Guilty of Sexually Assaulting Nursing Home Resident

AKRON, Ohio (Wednesday, December 14, 2016) – Summit County Prosecutor Sherri Bevan Walsh announced today that a Summit County jury found Edward McShaffrey, 59, of Coventry Street in Akron, guilty of sexually assaulting a resident of the Brookdale Montrose Nursing Home.

Jurors found McShaffrey guilty of the following charge:

- One Count of Gross Sexual Imposition – a felony of the 4th degree

In January of 2016, McShaffrey, a licensed practical nurse working at the nursing home, was seen with his mouth on the breast of the 69-year-old victim. The victim suffers from dementia and Parkinson 's disease and cannot communicate.

McShaffrey is scheduled to be sentenced on January 25, 2017 at 11am.
