Two Akron Men Found Guilty of Murder

Summit County Jury Finds Donyea & Orlando Tyus Guilty in Random Shootings

AKRON, Ohio (Friday, July 19, 2019) – Summit County Prosecutor Sherri Bevan Walsh announced today that a Summit County jury found Donyea Tyus, 30, of Lucy Street in Akron, and Orlando Tyus, 28, of Ira Avenue in Akron, guilty of several charges including two deadly shootings.

Jurors found both defendants guilty of the following charges:

- Two Counts of Aggravated Murder with Gun Specifications – Special Felonies
- Two Counts of Murder with Gun Specifications – Special Felonies
- Two Counts of Felonious Assault – Felonies of the 2nd degree
- Having a Weapon Under Disability – a Felony of 3rd degree

“These men terrorized several Akron neighborhoods and killed two men for no reason. I cannot think of a more evil act,” said Prosecutor Walsh. “These were innocent victims who were minding their own business when confronted by two evil men.”

During the early morning hours of July 7th, 2018, the Tyus brothers, along with 21-year-old Cheyenne James, drove around Akron with the intent of killing random people. The motive was possibly to initiate themselves into a new gang.

At approximately 3:30 a.m. on July 7th, 2018, outside 649 Schiller Avenue in Akron, the Tyus brothers and Cheyenne James parked on the street and waited in their car. 46-year-old Bonn Rassavong and his brother Conn were leaving a house after visiting family and walked toward the parked car. The Tyus brothers got out of their car and started shooting. Orlando fired multiple times killing Bonn Rassavong, while Donyea pointed his gun and attempted to shoot Conn but the gun malfunctioned and did not fire. Cheyenne James remained in the vehicle during the incident.

The trio then drove to the area of Arlington Street in Akron with the intent of having Donyea Tyus shoot and kill the next victim. Donyea confronted 58-year-old Robert McCall and shot him in the head. McCall died from his injuries.

At approximately 5 a.m. at 6th Avenue and Minordy Alley, the three lured Christina Heppe into an alley. Cheyenne James then pointed a gun to Heppe's head but the gun malfunctioned and did not fire. Heppe was able to escape.

Eventually, Cheyenne James was questioned by Akron Police and confessed to the entire incident.

Summit County Common Pleas Court Judge Alison McCarty is scheduled to sentence the Tyus brothers on Monday, July 29, 2019 at 9am.

On February 13, 2019, Cheyenne James pled guilty to the full indictment, a charge of felonious assault, a felony of the 2nd degree. Summit County Common Pleas Court Judge Joy Malek Oldfield is scheduled to sentence James on August 5th, 2019.
