Summit County Prosecutor Announces Indictment in Barberton Triple Homicide
Indictment includes death specifications

AKRON, OHIO – January 24, 2014 – Summit County Prosecuting Attorney Sherri Bevan Walsh today announced that her office will seek the death penalty against the men accused of shooting four people in Barberton on New Year's Eve. Eric D. Hendon, 31, and his 22-year-old brother Michael D. Hendon, both of Fawler Avenue in Akron, face multiple charges that include Aggravated Murder, Attempted Murder and Aggravated Robbery.

Eric Hendon is indicted on:

- Five counts of Aggravated Murder
  - Each count carries one firearm specification, two death specifications and one repeat violent offender specification
- Attempted Murder
  - Carries one firearm specification and one repeat violent offender specification
- Five counts of Aggravated Robbery
  - Each count carries one firearm specification and one repeat violent offender specification
- Two counts of Felonious Assault
  - Each count carries one firearm specification and one repeat violence offender specification
- Having Weapons Under Disability

Michael Hendon is indicted on:

- Five counts of Aggravated Murder
  - Each count carries one firearm specification and two death specifications
- Attempted Murder
- Five counts of Aggravated Robbery
  - Each count carries one firearm specification
- Two counts of Felonious Assault
  - Each count carries one firearm specification

If convicted of any count of Aggravated Murder with at least one death specification, the Hendons can be sentenced to death.

“This was a truly senseless crime that has shattered a community,” said Prosecutor Walsh. “An entire family – including two children – was killed. And the lone survivor of this brutal attack will carry physical and emotional scars for the rest of her life.”

Eric and Michael Hendon will be arraigned in the Court of Common Pleas on January 29.
