Teens Guilty of Robbing, Killing Man at Akron Drive-Thru

(June 14, 2012... Akron) ... Summit County Prosecutor Sherri Bevan Walsh announced today that a jury found Gevonte Hunter, 19, of Hollywood Avenue in Akron, and Alan Lollis, 19, of East Glenwood Avenue in Akron, guilty of Aggravated Murder with a firearm specification and two counts of Aggravated Robbery with firearm specifications. Hunter was also found guilty of one count of Murder.

Early in the evening of July 19, Hunter and Salim Suleiman met at Kelly's Drive-Thru on Copley Road in Akron. Lollis, who was familiar with Suleiman, had set up the meeting. Hunter robbed Suleiman and then shot him in the chest, killing him.

Judge Tammy O'Brien will sentence Hunter and Lollis on July 12 at 2:30 p.m.
