Akron Man Pleads Guilty to Killing Brother

AKRON, Ohio (Friday, January 22, 2016) – Summit County Prosecutor Sherri Bevan Walsh announced today that Ivory Thomas, 25, of Palmetto Avenue in Akron, pled guilty in connection with his brother's death.

Thomas pled guilty to the following charge:

- Voluntary Manslaughter – a felony of the 1st degree

On September 11, 2015, 20-year-old Dion Thomas got into a verbal confrontation with his brother Ivory. A fight then broke out and Ivory stabbed Dion in the neck. Ivory Thomas then fled the scene and was arrested days later.

Ivory Thomas is scheduled to be sentenced on March 9, 2016 at 10:15am.
