Akron Woman Found Guilty of Boyfriend's Murder

AKRON, Ohio (Wednesday, November 23, 2016) – Summit County Prosecutor Sherri Bevan Walsh announced today that a Summit County jury found Kerieda Beavers, 22, of Ericsson Avenue in Akron, guilty of fatally shooting her boyfriend in January.

Jurors found Beavers guilty of the following charges:

- Murder with a Firearm Specification – a special felony
- Felonious Assault with a Firearm Specification – a felony of the 2nd degree

During the early morning hours of January 9, 2016, Beavers got into an argument with Tevael Parker, her boyfriend of nearly three years. Beavers shot Parker, 22, striking him in the head and causing his death.

Beavers is scheduled to be sentenced on December 16th at 9am. Beavers faces a sentence of life in prison with parole eligibility after 18 years.
