Akron Man Sentenced to LIFE IN PRISON for Raping Child

AKRON, Ohio (Wednesday, May 15, 2019) – Summit County Prosecutor Sherri Bevan Walsh announced today that Summit County Common Pleas Court Judge Amy Corrigan Jones sentenced Dean Davis, 29, of Sail Drive in Green, to LIFE IN PRISON for raping a young boy he knew.

Davis must serve ten years in prison before he is eligible for parole.

Just prior to sentencing, Davis pled guilty to the following charges:

- Rape – a felony of the 1st degree
- Sexual battery – a felony of the 2nd degree
- Endangering Children – a felony of the 3rd degree
- Gross Sexual Imposition – a felony of the 3rd degree

Last April, Summit County Sheriff's Deputies launched an investigation after they were made aware of an incident where Davis sexually abused the child. Davis' co-defendant, who is charged with Obstructing Justice, is scheduled to go on trial June 20th.
