Man Gets Three Years for Beating Pregnant Girlfriend

(May 11, 2009 Akron) ... Prosecutor Sherri Bevan Walsh announced today that Michael Daniels, 19, of Stow was sentenced to three years in prison by Judge Gallagher for Felonious Assault, a felony of the second degree, and Attempted Reckless Homocide, a felony of the fourth degree.

On November 11, 2008, Daniels beat his sixteen-year-old girlfriend, who was 25 weeks pregnant at that time, saying he wanted the child to die. He was jealous of the attention his girlfriend was paying to the unborn baby. According to the victim, the baby was not injured.
