Akron Man Who Worked As Babysitter Indicted on Rape Charges

Investigators Asking for Public's Help in Finding Potential Victims

AKRON, Ohio (Friday, September 30, 2022) – Summit County Prosecutor Sherri Bevan Walsh announced today that a Summit County grand jury indicted Timothy Luna, 25, of Akron, for raping children he babysat.

The grand jury indicted Luna on the following charges:

- Six Counts of Rape – Felonies of the 1st Degree
- Three Counts of Gross Sexual Imposition – Felonies of the 3rd Degree
- Importuning – a felony of the 5th Degree

The charges are from incidents involving several children in three local communities. Investigators determined Luna was hired after posting his information on www.care.com, a website where families can search for people to assist in babysitting, senior care, tutoring, and pet care.
