Cleveland Woman Indicted in Connection with Murder of Hudson Man

AKRON, Ohio (Friday, May 26, 2023) – Summit County Prosecutor Sherri Bevan Walsh, with Hudson Police Chief Perry Tabak, announced today that a Summit County grand jury indicted Terreionna Paschal, 31, of Cleveland, in connection with the homicide of Todd A. Morgan, 41, of Hudson.

Morgan was found dead in his home on April 19, 2023.

Paschal faces several charges including aggravated murder with a gun specification, a special felony, and tampering with evidence, a felony of the 3rd degree.

An arraignment date for Paschal has not yet been scheduled.

“Our hearts go out to Todd’s family and friends. Through my department’s investigation, we determined that this was an isolated incident,” said Chief Tabak. “Thank you to our dedicated officers of the Hudson Police Department for their hard work in making an arrest in this case.”

Prosecutor Walsh added, “Chief Tabak and the Hudson Police deserve our gratitude for their hard work and professionalism in identifying and apprehending the suspect in this case. While we cannot discuss the details of the investigation, I want to recognize the efforts of our local police officers. Our hearts go out to the family and friends of Mr. Morgan.”
