Summit County Prosecutor's Office Will Have Limited Public Access Due to Solar Eclipse

AKRON, Ohio (Friday, April 5, 2024) – Summit County Prosecutor Elliot Kolkovich announced today that the public will have limited access to the Summit County Prosecutor's Office on Monday, April 8 due to the expected solar eclipse.

At the Prosecutor's Office Criminal, Juvenile, and Civil Departments, there will be a just a handful of employees as the majority of the office is being asked to work remotely. At the Prosecutor's Office Child Support Agency, located in the Ohio Building, public access will be limited but staff will be available by phone and through message on the Child Support Customer Service Web Portal ODJFS | Child Support Customer Service Portal \(ohio.gov\). The public is asked to call ahead to check availability. The phone number for the Summit County Child Support Agency is 330.643.2765.

"We expect a large influx of people to watch this once in a lifetime event. Therefore the majority of the Prosecutor's Office will work remotely on Monday, April 8, to limit further traffic and congestion. We hope our community and all our visitors will enjoy this event safely," said Prosecutor Kolkovich.

If the public needs to reach the Summit County Prosecutor's Office on Monday, April 8, or any day of the week, they can call the office main number at 330.643.2800.
