Cleveland Woman Pleads Guilty to Murder of Hudson Man

AKRON, Ohio (Wednesday, September 18, 2024) – Summit County Prosecutor Elliot Kolkovich announced today that Terreionna Paschal, 32, of East 188th Street in Cleveland, pled guilty to killing Todd Morgan in April of 2023.

Paschal pled guilty to the following charge:

- Aggravated murder with a Gun Specification – a Special Felony

In April of 2023, Paschal shot and killed Morgan at his Hudson home. The two only knew each other for a limited time prior to the shooting. Through phone records, mobile apps, DNA, and ballistics, Hudson detectives were able to link Paschal to Morgan and placed her at his home at the time of the murder.

Summit County Common Pleas Court Judge Alison Breaux is scheduled to sentence Paschal on Thursday September 19 at 8:30am.
