AKRON, OH – Summit County Prosecutor Elliot Kolkovich announced that Christopher Hill, 39, was sentenced to life in prison for sexually abusing a child in his care multiple times when she was between the ages of 6 and 8. Hill will be eligible for parole consideration after 8 years. In March, Hill pleaded guilty to two counts of Gross Sexual Imposition, a 3rd Degree Felony, both carrying a Sexually Violent Predator Specification.

Hill has also been designated a Tier II sex offender, meaning he will be required to register with his local sheriff every 180 days for 25 years.

“Christopher Hill took advantage of the unconditional trust of this child, and I commend the survivor’s courage for coming forward and sharing what happened,” said Prosecutor Kolkovich, “I also want to thank the KARE Center workers in Waynesville, North Carolina, for their compassionate care.”
