PROSECUTOR KOLKOVICH ELECTED SECRETARY OF THE OHIO PROSECUTING ATTORNEYS ASSOCIATION

AKRON, OH – Summit County Prosecutor Elliot Kolkovich was elected by his colleagues throughout Ohio to be Secretary of the Ohio Prosecuting Attorneys Association (OPAA) Executive Committee. As a part of this leadership role, Prosecutor Kolkovich will attend monthly meetings in Columbus and help drive OPAA's key goals and priorities. Today is the first meeting of the 2026 Executive Committee.

"I am honored to be joining the 2026 OPAA Executive Board. I firmly believe that it is my duty as an elected prosecutor not only to prosecute criminals, but to promote and enhance public safety for all our Summit County and Ohio communities. I am excited to get to work supporting my colleagues and advocating for safety and justice in this new role," said Prosecutor Kolkovich.

"We are very lucky and very happy to have Prosecutor Kolkovich join our leadership team at OPAA. As the prosecutor for one of Ohio's largest counties Elliot has a perspective and a voice that really is critical to the success of our Association as we work on issues related to criminal justice policy, matters of local government, and training for prosecutors across the state. His election to this position by his colleagues reflects how big of an asset he is not only to Summit County but to prosecutors across the state," said Lou Tomlin, Executive Director of OPAA.

The Ohio Prosecuting Attorneys Association is a private, non-profit trade organization that supports Ohio's 88 elected county prosecutors. Its mission is to assist county prosecutors to pursue truth and justice as well as promote public safety. OPAA advocates for public policies that strengthen prosecuting attorneys' ability to secure justice for crime victims and serve as legal counsel to county and township authorities. OPAA also sponsors continuing legal education programs and facilitates access to best practices in law enforcement and community safety and provides information to the public about the role of prosecutors in the justice system.
