"ARRIVE ALIVE" THIS ST. PATRICK'S DAY HOLIDAY

Prosecutor Kolkovich and Sheriff Fatheree Urge Drivers to Celebrate Responsibly

AKRON, OH – Summit County Prosecutor Elliot Kolkovich and Summit County Sheriff Kandy Fatheree are partnering up again this St. Patrick's Day to offer Summit County residents with accessible, safe, and affordable ride-share options through their "Arrive Alive" program. This anti-drunk driving campaign aims to prevent drunk driving during holiday seasons by providing free or reduced-fare rides in the Summit County area.

"The Arrive Alive program is an excellent resource for Summit County residents, and I'm proud to support it again this year. If you're celebrating St. Patrick's Day and plan to have a drink, don't leave getting home to luck—take advantage of the reduced-fare rides. There is nothing more important than your safety," said Prosecutor Kolkovich.

"If you've maybe had one too many drinks this St. Patrick's Day, the Luck of the Irish won't help you when one of my deputies pulls you over," said Sheriff Fatheree. "Arrive Alive is a fantastic program that we encourage residents to use if they need a safe ride home."

This St. Patrick's Day, any Summit County residents who choose to celebrate with a drink can use an "Arrive Alive" Lyft code to get a free or discounted ride home (up to $20 in value). There are only 600 one-time-use codes available and they will only be valid during the dates and times specified below.

Since its launch during the July 4th holiday weekend in 2018, the Arrive Alive program has helped 7,760 residents get home safely. The initiative is offered throughout the year during major holidays, including July 4th, Thanksgiving, Christmas, and New Year's Eve.
