“ARRIVE ALIVE” THIS FOURTH OF JULY

Free and Reduced-Fare Rides Help Keep Roads Safe During the July 4th Holiday

AKRON, OH – Summit County Prosecutor Elliot Kolkovich and Summit County Sheriff Kandy Fatheree are once again partnering this Independence Day to help keep roads safe by offering Summit County residents accessible, safe, and affordable rides through the “Arrive Alive” program. The anti-drunk driving initiative provides free or discounted ride-share options throughout Summit County during the July 4th holiday, encouraging residents to celebrate responsibly and avoid impaired driving.

“The Arrive Alive program is a valuable resource that helps keep our community safe, and I’m proud to sponsor it once again this Independence Day holiday,” said Prosecutor Kolkovich. “If your celebration includes alcohol, make a plan to get home safely before you head out. Protect yourself, and everyone else out celebrating.”

“We want you to have fun celebrating America’s 250 birthday with your friends and family, but remember that my deputies and other area law enforcement will be out in full force all weekend. Don’t lose your independence on Independence Day, use the Arrive Alive program if you’ve had too much to drink over the holiday,” said Sheriff Kandy Fatheree.

This July 4th, any Summit County residents who choose to celebrate with a drink can use an “Arrive Alive” Lyft code to get a free or discounted ride home (up to $20 in value). There are only 600 one-time-use codes available, and they will only be valid during the dates and times specified below.

Since its launch during the July 4th holiday weekend in 2018, the Arrive Alive program has helped 8,031 residents get home safely. The initiative is offered throughout the year during major holidays, including St. Patrick’s Day, Thanksgiving, Christmas, and New Year’s Eve.
